

Photo Caption: Xandra Daigle, dressed as a werewolf, helped with the games during the 2006 Monster Mash.

Sept. 24, 2007

News Release

CITY & LION'S CLUB TO CO-SPONSOR MONSTER MASH FALL EVENT

WEST CARROLLTON, Ohio – Friendly ghosts, witches and little monsters will be running around the Civic Center from 6 to 8 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 25 during the annual Monster Mash celebration.

Kara Neiford, recreational programmer, said the event was moved from a Saturday to a Thursday evening to avoid competition with many other school and community events held during the weekends in October.

In addition to the Lion's Club annual costume competition at 6 p.m., this year's event will feature free hayrides a free inflatable bouncer activity and one free pumpkin per child.

-more-

“We want this activity to be fun and affordable for all families,” Neiford said. “Several donations by local companies help us keep the cost down,” she said

Tickets for carnival games will cost 5 for $1 or 25 cents each. There will also be a canned food drive to benefit Angel Food Ministries. Each canned good donation, up to five cans, will earn a free ticket.

Popcorn and cotton candy can be purchased for one ticket. Children can also participate in a cake walk, bean-bag throw, duck pond, ring toss and other traditional carnival games.

Local sponsors and donors include: BooYah Inflatables, Dayton Progress, Fraternal Order of Orioles, Tom’s Maze, 906 Watertower Lane and Wilson & Shanesy Insurance Agency Inc.

For more information, call West Carrollton’s Parks and Recreation department at (937) 847-4635.

-end-