

Aug. 8, 2007

News Brief

WEST CARROLLTON, Ohio - National Night Out was held on Tuesday, Aug. 7 at West Carrollton's Wilson Park. Many local residents attended, despite the 90-degree temperatures, to see West Carrollton firefighters demonstrate a vehicle extrication as well as the landing by Care Flight helicopter. Children also participated in a bike rodeo and received free bike helmets.

Sheri Thatcher (left) and her son J.B. watch the vehicle extrication demonstration with Becky Thatcher (right) and her daughter Carly.

Deputy Police Chief Doug Woodard (left) keeps the crowd at a safe distance during the landing by the Care Flight helicopter during National Night Out.

West Carrollton fire department personnel demonstrated a vehicle extrication during National Night Out.

Fire department personnel transport mock-victim Melanie Boland, to the Care Flight helicopter.