POLICE TO HOST NATIONAL NIGHT OUT AT WILSON POOL

WEST CARROLLTON, Ohio - West Carrollton's National Night Out will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. on Tuesday, Aug. 5 at Wilson Park Pool.

Admission is free and open to the public. The annual national event, hosted at various sites across the country, is designed to foster partnerships between local police departments and the community. Police officials also hope to promote awareness about safety and crime prevention.

"Having this year's event at the pool changes the dynamics of the event," said Robert Hensley, administrative sergeant. The Care Flight helicopter is scheduled to land at 6:15 p.m. and hold a mock emergency run," he said.

The event will also feature free hot dogs and lemonade, free children's bike helmets, a visit by McGruff the Crime Dog, home safety presentations as well as vehicle demonstrations by West Carrollton's police and fire departments.
